2024 farOpen Studios Art Trail

A vibrant celebration of the region's creative talent run by local artists. Entrance is free to all venues/events.

Open to all artists, this art trail is a celebration of the quality and diversity of visual art found within the Forest of Dean and along rivers Severn and Wye. It includes ceramics, book art, drawing, painting, printmaking, enamelling, jewellery, paper art, photography, sculpture, stone carving, wood carving, wire work, pyrography, glass, cyanotypes, mosaics, decoupage, tapestry weaving, upcycled textiles, kinetic art, willow weaving, basketry, furniture, wooden kitchenware, artist film, silk ribbon embroidery, leather work, botanical pressings, laser engraving, silversmithing.

Venues range from artists' homes, studios and gardens to pop-up exhibitions in churches, cafes, galleries, shops and other wonderful venues.

Visiting working studios provides a fascinating insight into artists' creative space. What's more, artists love to chat about their work and their inspirations; it's even better if they can show, not just tell!

Thank you for your visit

How do I find

.... venues

Studios are listed in alphabetical order by first name or business name. Plan your route using the map and index, or leaf through the brochure, noting studio numbers, then find them on the map.

You can also search our interactive map and digital brochure on farOpen.co.uk, as well as Route Planners highlighting studios within close proximity.

There are What3Words identifiers for venues, preceded with ///. When using W3W, after finding your location, go to NAVIGATE. This gives you a choice of navigation tools.

There will be ample signage for each studio.

.... an artist I know

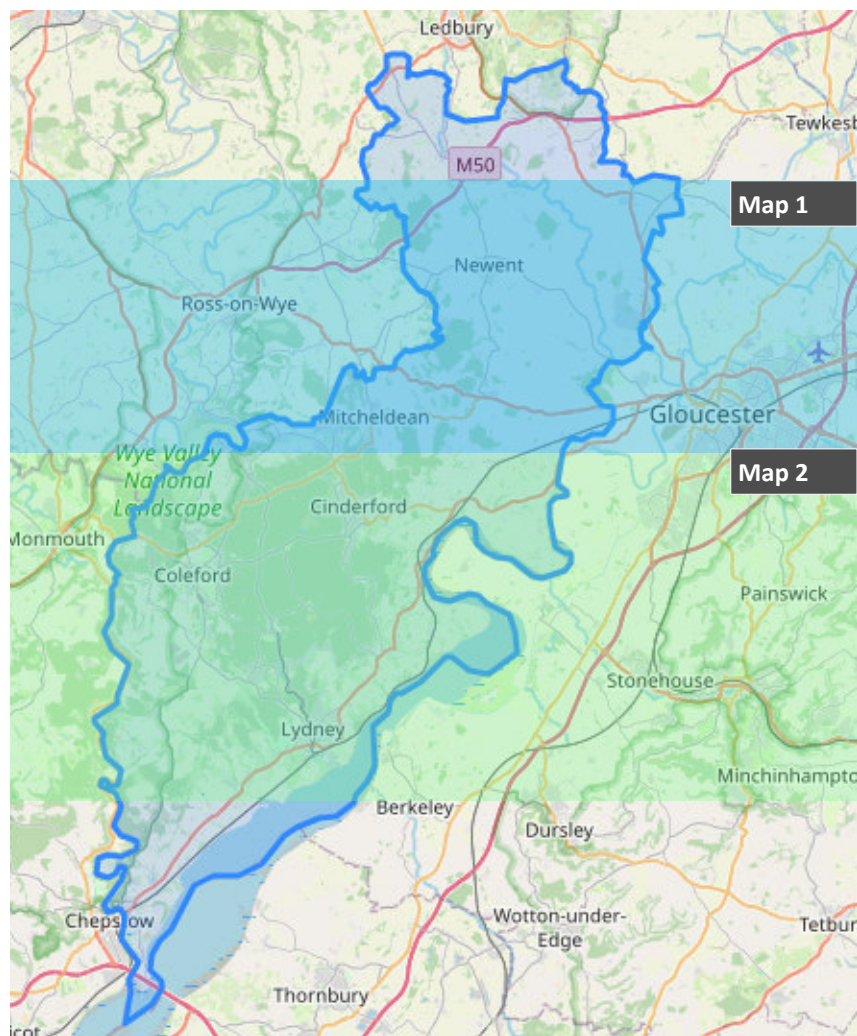

Go to the index of artists and times.

.... opening hours

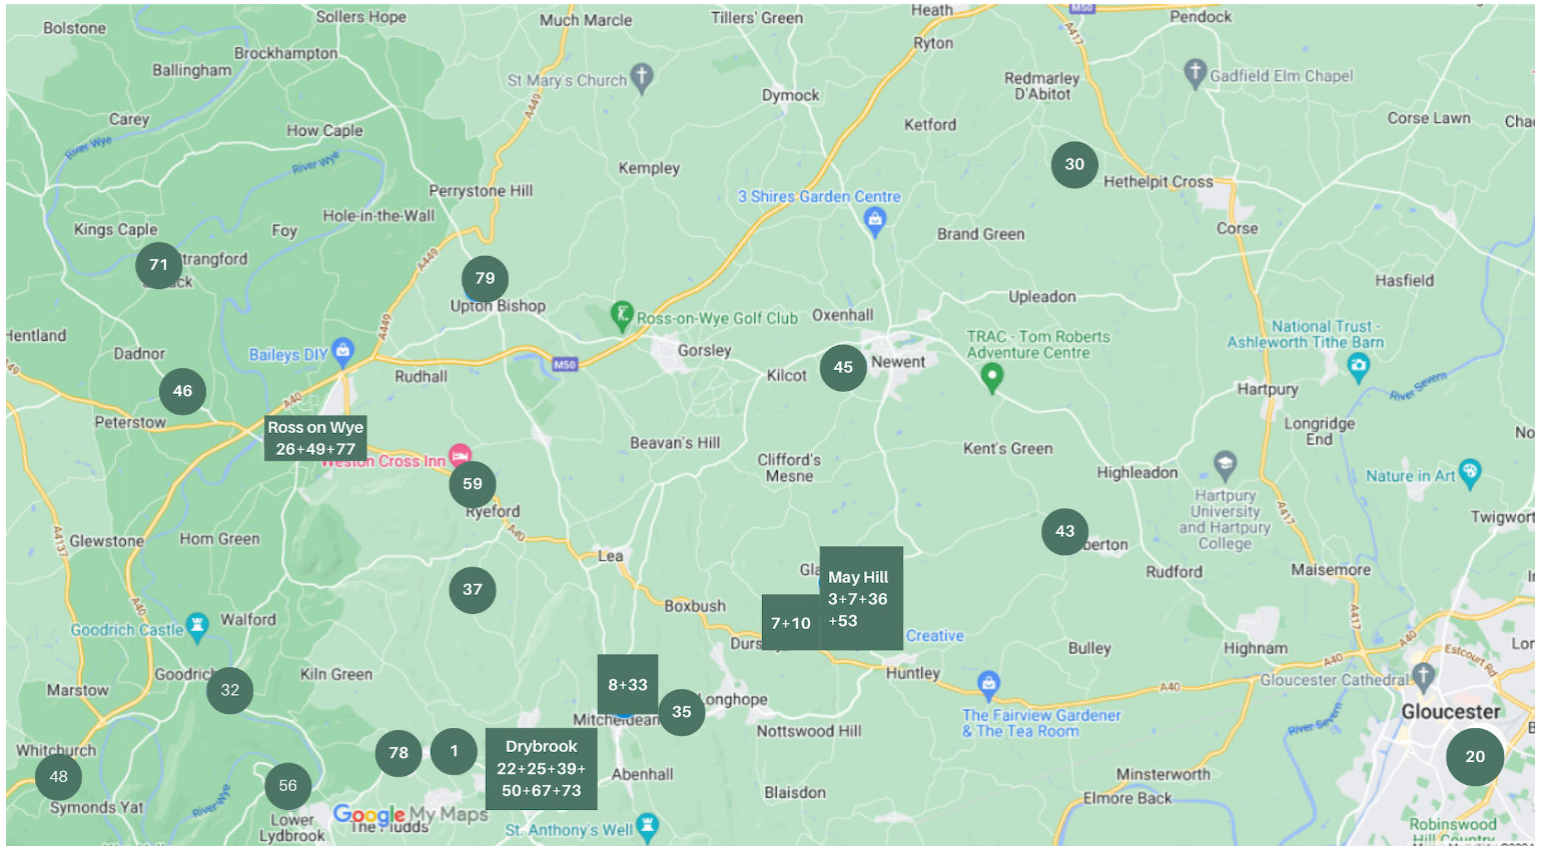

Opening times are chosen by each artist, so please check times for studios you wish to visit, either on the artists' entries or in the index at the front.

.... workshops / demonstrations / events

There is an index of studios holding workshops and demonstrations during the art trail.

'Out of the frying Pan'

BY SANDRA TOWNSEND

Encouraged by the excitement and success of 'Art in a colander' in 2023, Sandra is returning to The Secret Gallery, Newent, with a new body of work for 2024; presenting 'Out of the frying pan'. Flowers and colour play a major part on her road of discovery in these vibrant paintings in acrylic and mixed media.
